Music begins

Music with lyrics follows:

Light, the star of luck has vanished from this sky. I cannot see it shine.
Far smokes have covered memories of spring and the sparkling of love.
Return to me fairytale of love when two swans so white tied by fate were young.
When we were gliding and lives were still and summer's souls rising high ever fell.
Love that to take a fire from the earth your partner leads to this.
Glad to be inside the glow of our love, I've waited all my springs.
I could have been queen of swans my prince lived my life forever for you my prince.
What love will bring us we can't foretell, cannot break the spell.
Look at me love, I'm crashing I'm down. Life without you is over for me.
Love till the death of the Spartans. Swan song about a martyr.

Music – no lyrics (hip hop style Swan Lake)

Music with lyrics continues:

Love that will take a fire by the earth, your partner needs two wings.
Glad to be inside the glow of our love, I've waited all my springs.
I could have been queen of swans my prince, lived my life forever for you.
Down into the abyss I fall. I'm glad I lived. I'm the trophy. Love, that's how your swan loves.
A life, I love you til the day I die. Love for life.
